W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

R. CONGRESS.....JAS. B. M'CREARY
 For County Judge.....JAS. WALKER GIVENS
 " Clerk.....G. B. COOPER
 " Attorney.....J. B. PAXTON
 Sheriff.....T. D. NEWLAND
 Assessor.....E. D. KENNEDY
 Jailor.....G. W. DEBORD

JUSTICE HARLAN, of the U. S. supreme court, has modified the foolish decision of Judge Jenkins, that the laboring men on the Northern Pacific had no right to quit work or strike. He takes the sensible ground, and law ought always to be founded on sense, whether it is or not, that a man does not become a vassal, simply because he works for wages, with no rights whatever, and holds when quitting work peaceably, whether singly or by concerted action, for the purpose only of bettering their condition, and without using force, threats, or intimidation toward others who do not join them, or who may offer to take their places, laborers can not be legally charged with any loss to the employer resulting from their cessation of work, and are simply exercising a God given right.

THE Georgetown Times says that George Denny, impressed with his own importance, sent a letter to W. C. Owens telling him to send a man to Lexington to arrange with his man a list of joint appointments. Mr. Owens, with the dignity worthy of his nomination, replied that he supposed it had not occurred Mr. Denny that it is precisely the same distance from Lexington to Georgetown as it is from Georgetown to Lexington, and the train schedule out of Lexington is more conveniently arranged. The result was that Mr. Denny had to send his man, as he might have thought of doing in the first place.

THE Covington Commonwealth of Monday contains a notice of change, which will fill the hearts of a legion of newspaper friends with delight. No name is given, but it is plain to see that Mr. Laurie J. Blakely has returned to his first love, and assumed editorial control of the "leading democratic daily East of Kentucky river." We welcome him with outstretched arms to the fold again, and extend to him the right hand of fellowship, while his partner in punmanship, Brer Meacham, of the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, sings: "While the lamp holds out to burn, the vilest sinner may &c."

R. SEMMES COLSON, who graduated from the reportorial corps of the Courier-Journal, where by his indefatigable energy he acquired the name of "Scoop," to an editorial position on the Louisville Times and afterwards to the chief editorship of the Louisville Truth, has been engaged by Mr. Urey Woodson to help edit the Owensboro Messenger, one of the liveliest papers in the State. Congratulations are in order all around.

Four of the present members of Congress from Virginia were turned down for re-nomination, the other six making their calling sure, in some instances after a hard struggle. The republicans, populists and prohibitionists are combining in many cases to defeat the democratic nominees, and are using their utmost endeavors to that end, but they will likely gnaw a file, and the delegation will doubtless remain solidly democratic.

For ways that are dark and for tricks that are mean, the average republican is peculiar. In order to influence men to vote against Mr. Wilson, the tariff reformer, ex-Secretary Elkins and his partner in sin, ex Senator Davis, have made a reduction in the pay of their miners of 20 per cent and claim that they had to do it on account of the tariff reductions, a lie so palpable that it will not fool even the most ignorant miner.

As an offset to Maine and New Hampshire, Florida and Georgia have spoken in decisive tones for democracy. Florida elected a nearly solid democratic legislature, while Georgia gave Atkinson, democratic candidate for governor, over 30,000 majority. The populists in the latter State made some inroads in the Legislature, but not sufficient to affect democratic control.

THE republicans are making herculean efforts to regain Indiana. President Harrison is to be hauled around the State on a special train to make 20-minute speeches at all towns of importance. He could tell the people the real cause of the hard times if he were honest enough.

A new republican paper, announcing itself for Pugh and protection, has appeared at Grayson, Carter county, edited by Misses Ara and Mollie Keis, aged 18 and 20 years. Poor misguided things! When they get older and have husbands and children they will probably know better.

ONLY 87,000 people will be affected by the income tax. The other 60,000,000 will stand off and laugh to see them pony up some of their easily gotten gains.

—The prohibitionists of Madison have nominated a county ticket.

PRESIDENT M. H. SMITH has voluntarily retired from the directory of the L. & N., but we are glad to be informed that that does not mean his retirement from the road he has done so much towards making the greatest and most successful one in the country. The annual report for the year ending June 30, showed a decrease of $3,429,302.32, in gross receipts, a decrease of $2,518,857.38 in operating expenses, and a decrease of $910,444.74 in net earnings.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Republicans in the Seventh district have invited McKinley and Maj. Ben Butterworth to speak in the interest of Judge Denny. Maj. Butterworth, it will be remembered, was one of Col. Breckinridge's attorneys in his famous breach of promise suit.

—Robert Eldridge, under sentence for five years for killing young Brinkley and awaiting the action of the court of appeals, broke jail at Somerset, after writing a note to the jailer that he was so sorry to depart so abruptly that he had almost as lief take a whipping.

—The tornado at Little Rock, Ark., Tuesday night destroyed over a million dollars' worth of property and killed four and injured 40 people. Over 200 buildings were either blown down or unroofed. The greatest damage was done to the penitentiary, the insane asylum and the Martin Block.

—Hon. John Jayhawker White appears to have laid the wires for a grand coup d'etat in the Eleventh district. Having enjoined the opposition from holding a primary, he can now slap all the other fellows in jail for contempt and hold them there while he takes a walk over the congressional track.—Louisville Times.

—Elsworth Hupp, of Parkersburg, W. Va., quarreled with his wife and left the house saying that he was going to kill himself. A short while afterward she found him in the barn hanging. She cut him down and succeeded in reviving him, which so aggravated him that he took the rope with which he had hung himself and gave her a fearful beating.

—Corbett says he does not want to fight Fitzsimmons or any body else now because he has business engagements which he can not cancel, but that after July 1, '95, he will spend one week fighting and challenges Fitzsimmons, Peter Jackson, Ed Smith, Peter Maher and any body else that may wish to fight him that week. He prefers to meet Fitzsimmons first and after him first come first served. He offers to put up $10,000 with David Blanchard, of Boston, as an evidence of good faith.

—The State treasurer has money enough to the credit of the school fund to pay the installment of $800,000 due to the teachers and superintendents, and has begun to mail the checks. Resumption of payment out of the general revenues may begin in November.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Don't forget the great meeting of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association at Lexington, Oct. 6 to 13th, with its $30,000 Futurity, Tuesday, 9th.

—The Queen City Handicap was won at Latonia by Ida Pickwick, who carried a weight of 123 pounds, and yet went the mile and an eighth in the fast time 1:53.

—Mr. Gottlieb Walbaum, owner of the Saratoga race track, has made Mr. E. C. Hopper, secretary of the Latonia Jockey Club, a big offer to become secretary of his association and he will likely accept.

—Lucy Lee, the filly Carroll Reid named for our business manager's little daughter, won a race at Latonia the other day. The distance was five furlongs and she went it in 1:03. There were 13 starters.

—John Duvall bought in this county for Joe McDowell, of Danville, 27 sugar mule colts at an average price of $42.50. This is one of the finest lots of colts that ever left the county. Mr. Duvall also bought for Abe Renick 18 two-year-old cattle, wt. 1,100 lbs., at from 3 to 3 1/2 cts. and a bunch of heifers from Joe Downing at 2 1/2 cts.—Winchester Democrat.

ROWLAND.

—The wholesome democratic doctrine in the last issue of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, should be copied by every paper in the land and proclaimed from every hill-top, until the people are educated to disregard the vociferous harangues and false assertions being made by republicans, by which they seek to lead the people to believe that the democrats are responsible for the financial panic. Let them tell who was in power during the panic of 1873 and some other hard times. The last trouble was a necessary result of vicious republican legislation. If this administration is the cause of it, why are times getting better under the same rule? Congress has enacted laws which are now saving the people millions of dollars and the business outlook promises to be brighter than it has been for years; and when the people generally begin to feel the effects of these changes they will vote where their interests, and they being largely in the majority, when compared with the manufacturers, will roll up an unprecedented majority in November.

—On Tuesday, your correspondent called on our mutual friend, the notorious T. C. Ball, who is known from the vine-clad hills of Lincoln, to the pumpkin producing regions of Garrard. His new home is tastily attired, and his superannuated mother is highly delighted with it. Being over 80 years of age, she has old relics collected in the long ago, which are great curiosities; showing the difference between the old and the new dispensations. Among them is a fly-bush, made from the rear feathers of a peacock, before the birth of Thomas, who is now less than 50 years of age, and not a feather is broken. She has quite a variety of home-made blankets and bed covers, which were made by her own hands, years ago. The sheep were caught by Tommy, when a kid, the wool was spun and woven by her, and the garments are far better than the cheap, ready-made stuff, purchased now. She is afraid of a coal oil lamp and uses tallow candles which are not so dangerous, or so destructive to the eyes. In fact it is an old fashioned, independent home, and many believe that Tom is preparing to take unto himself a helpmeet to teach her to follow in the footsteps of his noble old mother. This may be true, but we don't know who the lady can be.

—The State treasurer has money enough to the credit of the school fund to pay the installment of $800,000 due to the teachers and superintendents, and has begun to mail the checks. Resumption of payment out of the general revenues may begin in November.

HUBBLE.

—Hollace Spoonamore, of Buena Vista, was up on a business trip this week.

—Ed Minor has sold his property in Lancaster to a Mr. Pamphrey, of Illinois, for $900.

—S. Dunbar and C. E. Gentry caught a red fox on the ground in a race of about an hour a few nights ago.

—Underwood Bros. sold 20 1,000 lb. cattle to J. S. Bosley at 3c. Eubanks Bros. sold a bunch of 900 lb. heifers to Johnson, of Danville, at 2 1/2 to 3c.

—Jim Austin's barn was burned a few nights ago, together with a lot of pony of Robert Underwood's and a threshing machine belonging to Lee Austin. The machine was insured.

—Robert Russell, of Danville, bought a lot of butcher cattle here at 2 1/2 c. A. L. and D. G. Spoonamore sold to Johnson, of Danville, a lot of fat hogs at 5c, and some cows and calves at $25 to $30.

—Eph Engleman says that his business is better. He went out hunting one night last week and caught four coons and one pole cat. Ed Minor is putting up a pair of stock and wagon scales on his farm.

—Joseph Rogers sold a mule colt to Wm. Hubble for $57.50. R. L. Hubble sold to a Wayne county party a bunch of mule colts at about $35. Wm. Sutton sold to J. S. Robinson 100 barrels of corn in the heap at $2.

—Having just returned from the city I am glad to say that I found business there much improved over what it was a few months ago. A great number of factories and shops that were then standing idle there are running now on full time, and every body is feeling better over the outlook in trade.

—The republican primary here Saturday was a most complete fizzle. And now it is thought that a democrat will represent us in the next Congress, and there is no one in the district that can do it better than our own, George E. Stone.

—Democratic prospects were never better in this county than at present. We have the best ticket that has ever been offered to the people, and it is the duty of every democrat to see that it is elected by a safe majority. Let every one go to work in earnest and victory is ours.

—Mrs. Sallie Murphy returned Tuesday to her home at Kingsville, after a stay of three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. T. S. Benson. Mrs. J. J. Drive, of Kansas, is visiting her son, Mr. G. W. Drye, Jr. Several of her lady friends of Hustonville and vicinity came down Monday to see her. Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, was down Saturday fishing. He employed Fred Durham, Leo Collinsworth and "Sopape" Kenney to catch grasshoppers for bait at one cent per head. Miss Lula Benson is able to sit up, but she looks nothing like her former self. W. P. Kenney is on his feet again after a tussle with typhoid fever.

—Mrs. Belva Lockwood has finally been admitted to the bar of Virginia. She is the first woman thus honored by the State.

The Harvard Quartette, said to be one of the finest musical organizations in the country, will give a concert at Lancaster under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, of which Mrs. Ellen L. Owsley is president, next Wednesday night, Oct. 10th. It will pay the music lovers here to attend and it is likely a number of couples will go over.

ASSESSOR KENNEDY is busily engaged in the Stanford precinct at present. He says that while lands will average about as last year, stock is given in at much lower prices, especially horses, and he fears the assessment will be materially decreased. He further says he has never seen as poor a corn crop as made this year, since he has been assessor.

The Odd Fellows Lodge has voted to invite the grand lodge to meet here next year and quite a number of members will go with the regular delegates. A. C. Sine, J. T. Harris and J. A. Allen, to the meeting at Paris next week to extend the invitation. Mr. Sine has secured a round-trip rate over the L. & N. via Livingston of $3, which is less than half fare and which can be taken advantage of by anybody. The grand lodge of Odd Fellows met here a number of years ago, but it was a small thing compared with now when over 400 delegates assemble.

Mr. Sine has made arrangements for taking care of them, should they come, and it is hoped that the invitation will be accepted. It would be a big thing for Stanford and we trust that nothing will be left undone to secure the meeting here.

MR. G. A. BENEDICT is the "trading" man in the country and as a general thing he comes out ahead in his deals. Several days ago he left here with a Texan pony, a 25 year-old mule, a blind mule and a pretty good work mule with the intention of spending a while "swapping." He returned Wednesday and gave us the following report: "I was at Lebanon court and the rest of the time I spent in Taylor county, which I found to be a first-rate one in which to swap horses. I made 26 swaps in all and traded for the blind mule and owned him three times in four days, but finally got rid of him for good." Are you ahead on your trip? Our reporter asked. "A little," was his reply. "I brought back two nice five-year-old mares, a good brood mare, the best mule I started with besides a yoke of oxen worth $50 and a $750 sow. I also have several dollars more than I left with." Mr. Benedict said he really enjoyed the trip and that he would go back to Taylor county and try it again as soon as he heard of the death of the blind mule.

A SENSATION is promised in Rockcastle, when a case now undergoing official investigation is made public. It seems that somebody has been using the name of Willis Adams, Jr., to affidavits for increase of pensions, in which it is stated that he is a justice of the peace and has been since July 1892. An application of this sort was sent to Mr. Adams from the pension department at Washington a few days ago, asking that he sign his name in the blank, in his official capacity, to the paper in which County Clerk M. C. Miller, of Rockcastle county, certifies that Mr. Adams is a justice and authorized to make such acknowledgements. The seal of the county is attached, which Mr. Miller says he did not attach, not having seen or heard of the paper before. As the name of D. P. Bethurum, republican candidate for county judge, appears as attorney in the case, he will be called on, if he has not before this, to make some explanations that may be hard to explain. There is no telling how many such documents have procured pensions, but it will all come to light in due time and somebody will do time for the crime of forgery and swindling the government.

We will take pleasure in showing you our goods, whether you want to buy or not. Severance & Son.

If you come to town court day go to Severance & Son and see more dry goods, carpets and shoes than you ever saw in one house in Stanford.

Don't fail to hear Gov. McCreary's speech at the court-house Monday. The governor will also speak at Hustonville, Tuesday, 9th, and Kingsville, Wednesday, 10th, at 1 o'clock each day.

We are asked to state that the Caledonian Society will meet at the court-house Saturday night with a big program which includes a solo by that sweet singer, Mrs. A. G. Huffman.

THE farming lands of Sam J. Embry, W. P. Tate, John M. McRoberts, A. D. Root and others within the town limits, have been levied on by Marshal Newland for taxes and the question will be fully tested as to the liability of such lands for city taxation.

SHERIFF MOREN, of Laurel, took to London, Wednesday, Robert Lawrence and Creek Vivian, charged with car breaking and William Scott, with murder, to be tried at the present court. They have been in jail here nearly six months for safe keeping.

HERE is an example worthy of emulation and imitation. Mr. Lewis Rossell came up Wednesday and paid his subscription to the INTERIOR JOURNAL for the 20th year. It was not due for some time, but he said he knew that people would crowd up so to pay Monday, that he wanted to avoid the rush. If all our subscribers were like Mr. Rossell, the editor would be a bloated bondholder instead of a penniless pauper.

LAWYER DAVISON is making a most active canvass for the office of county judge and putting up the most pitiful of pleas. He realizes that it is a ground hog case with him and he is letting the rest of the republican ticket take care of itself. He may wheedle a few so-called democrats to come to his rescue, but we have an abiding faith that a large majority will stand by our ticket and elect Mr. Givens by a handsome vote. But it behooves the democrats to be on the alert and poll their full strength. Let there be no wavering, but with a full line presented to the enemy march on to certain victory.

THE Court of Claims met Tuesday, Judge W. E. Varnon presiding and the following justices present: J. T. Brown, W. A. Coffey, Wm. Leach, George P. Bright, George W. Young, John Bailey, Geo. D. Smiley, T. S. Blankenship, L. B. Adams, A. C. Carman, W. L. Dawson, H. F. Newland, W. P. Grimes, Sr., E. B. Caldwell, Jr., and W. A. Collier. County Attorney J. B. Paxton announced that he had had the court-house insured for $8,000 and the jail for $4,000 for five years at a cost of $366 and an order was made to pay the amount. Forty or more paupers were allowed from $3 to $6 a month. A committee was appointed to investigate the turnpikes aided by the county and report why the citizens have not paid the debts on them, as agreed, instead of applying tolls for that purpose.

W. M. Bright was reelected treasurer. Drs. Pettus & Walls, on a bid of $100, were elected poor house physicians by a vote of 8 to 6 over Dr. W. M. Doores, whose bid was $140. The reason for this was that Dr. Doores, who had held the position, declined to dress the leg of a pauper, who had hurt himself, and Andy Rice had to be paid $20 for his services in that line, the doctor claiming that it was not his place to perform such service. The salary of the county judge for the ensuing year was cut $100 and fixed at $800. W. F. McClary's, as superintendent of schools, remains at $900. Jailer S. M. Owens was allowed $1,165.30 and docked $156 for claim for waiting on and making fires for courts in criminal cases. Mrs. Sue Holmes' claim for keeping poor house, amounting to $637.10, was allowed. County judge and county attorney were appointed to investigate the best method, of the three proposed, for the working of the county roads, and report to this body. The price of teams on roads was fixed at $1.75 a day. The road claims amounting to $3,000 or more were at first allowed, but after a speech by Hon. W. H. Miller, who said they were out of all reason, having run up from $500 when he was county attorney, a reconsideration was moved and carried, the following justices voting aye: Leach, Caldwell, Bright, Collier, Brown, Dawson, Blankenship, Bailey, Young and Grimes, 10. Those voting nay were Coffey, Newland, Adams, Smiley and Carman, 5. It was then moved and adopted that the court adjourn to Saturday, Oct. 13, to consider those claims and to have the various overseers of the road present to be examined in the matter of so great an increase in the amount claimed.

OLD Mr. Harber, of the Preachersville neighborhood, mistook a bottle of liniment, Sunday night, for the medicine he was looking for and taking a big dose of it, died from the effects. He was about 90 years of age.

MR. THOMAS C. YEAGER returned Wednesday from a two months' outing with Tip Bruce's pacers in the Western Circuit. He did not win as much money as he had hoped to with this good string but considering the fast time the races he was in were made he did very well. He won one race with Harry B., worth $1,000, and gave him a mark of 2:20.4. He was second once with him and was second once with Hustler, lowering his record from 2:22 to 2:12. With these two he got third money three times and fourth money the same number. Barney, the great campaigner of last year, on account of a failure of his races to fill, was started only once and got fourth money. His race was won in 2:07.4.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—A German statistician says 3,000 years hence there will be only one man to every 200 women.

—G. W. Gaines, 22, and Miss Sarah J. McMullins, 19, were married near Waynesburg yesterday.

—The annual meeting of the Kentucky Brigade, Knights of Pythias, which has been in session at Lexington has closed. Gen. George D. Curry, of Newport, was re-elected Brigadier General, and he was also presented with a gold medal set with diamonds.
